BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1889.

LOCAL REVENUES.

Stop at the Irvington Hotel, Irvington, Ky.
The old Catholic church is being torn down.

Circuit Court is in session at Hawesville
this week.

Mr. Ed Kisan was visiting old friends here last Sunday.

Little Herman Weatherholt is very sick
with scarlet fever.

John T. Ditto, of Brandenburg, spent Sunday in this city.

Julius Hardin has two children very sick with scarlet fever.

Father Higgins is building a new house
some addition to his dwelling.

Col. Lafayette Green, of the Falls of Rough was in town yesterday.

Miss Jessie Greiner is visiting Miss Salie
Pumphrey at Holt this week.

Miss Emma Barks is visiting her sister,
Mrs. John Stettin, at Stillman.

These thankful for small favors will be doubly thankful for Salzer's big bargains.

Good morning. Do you drink Salzer's XXXX coffee for breakfast? It is the best.

Mrs. Ed. Bennett and Mrs. Harvey Basham, of Beesleyville, were in Louisville last week.

Mrs. Pat Rooney went to Henderson
last Thursday to visit her sister, Mrs.
Manion.

Measrs. John T. Pike and Thos. Prescott, of Concordia, were the guests of Mr.
T. W. Swift yesterday.

The merchants at Fordville are still having their goods hauled out by wagons as it is much cheaper than by rail.

Mr. Chris Perrier has two little daughters,
Pearl and Nora, are visiting their aunt,
Mrs. J. W. Jarrett, at Stephensport.

Miss Maria C. Watkins, of Owensboro and Tommie Cloyd, of Decatur, Ill., are visiting their aunt, Mrs. R. R. Pierce.

Mr. James Miller, county school superintendent, was thought to be some better
yesterday, but he is not yet very well.

The City of Owensboro passed down
this morning looking as bright as a silver dollar. The Guthrie will follow to-morrow.

The great labor party of the United States will appreciate Garret's magic chicken cholera cure. Warned by G.
W. Short.

Mr. C. E. Walker, a stenographer of Louisville went out to Hardinsburg yesterday to take down the evidence in the railroad case.

Mr. J. W. Jarrett, of Stephensport, went to Louisville last Thursday. He expects to be on the road soon representing a first-class grocery house.

Mr. S. B. Addison was summoned to Waterloo Monday evening to attend the bedside of his brother Andy, who was reported to be in a dying condition.

There were more drunken men on our streets last Saturday than has been seen for a long time. Whisky flowed freely and it is said that a great deal of money was wasted.

W. A. Smith, store-keeper, has been assigned for November and December to the Davis County Distilling Company No. 32.
Capt. J. A. Clark goes to John G. Roach & Co., No. 6.

The following young ladies of Mooreville paid a pleasant visit to Louisville last week: Misses Mattie V. Hicks, Eliza
and Frankie Lewis, Mrs. Wm. Elder.
Mr. P. H. Stiff, of the same place, accompanied them.

We are easily in need of more hotel accommodations in this city. Several parties came in on the train Monday night and could not get rooms at the Cloverport
hotel and were compelled to make the trip to Hardinsburg that night. What about $20,000 hotel?

The protesting meeting that was to have commenced in the Methodist church last Sunday has been postponed until some time in December. Rev. Holcomb is engaged in organizing a Mission in Buffalo, N. Y., and could not be present as first advertised.

If you are raising or feeding hogs you cannot afford to not read Dr. Haas' great Hog Remedy. It is a sure and powerful preventive of hog cholera, and thousands of feeders recommend it and say they cannot afford to be without it to raise hogs successfully. Beards, Beeler & DeJernette
keep it for sale at Hardinsburg.

The Clover Line had a bad wreck on the road just below Hawesville last week.
A drawhead from one of the center cars pulled out while running down grade at full speed, and the rear portion of the train loaded with steel rails for the Hardinsburg branch ran into the front section and eight cars were heaped in a pile. The Cincinnati Cooperative Company had six cars of staves that went through all right. There were no lives lost or any one injured. The damages are said to be quite heavy.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

Indigestion, Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Headache, Nervousness, and General Debility. Physicians recommend it. All dealers sell it. Beware of cheap imitations and avoid them on wrapper.

Mr. Arthur Board was in the city yesterday.

Who sells cheapest? Right this way
please to Salzer's.

Mr. A. M. Kasey returned from Vine
 Grove last Sunday.

Mr. G. W. Board, of Hardinsburg, went to Owensboro yesterday.

Mrs. Jas. G. Stephens, of Holt, went to West Point last Thursday.

Prof. T. M. Hawes will lecture in the Presbyterian church to night.

Measrs. Chas. Babbage and Forrie Wilson spent Sunday in this city.

The money you might save by trading with Salzer's. Just think of it.

Mrs. Elizabeth Short, of Hartford, is visiting her son, Mr. G. W. Short.

Rev. W. B. Brannen will preach at Holt
next Sunday at 11 a. m. here at night.

Mrs. J. E. Keith returned Monday from a visit to her son S. R. Keith at Owensboro.

Miss Lela Laffitt came home from school last Friday and returned yesterday.

The dedication of the Methodist church
at Webster has been postponed until Dec.
8th.

Mrs. Woods and her daughter, Miss Jennie, have returned from the Forks of Rough.

The Adams Express Company has opened
an office at Fordville. Mr. J. D. Cooper is the agent.

Col. Wolf was here yesterday and we welcomed the thread of his latest and greatest snap now on the road.

Irish potatoes are selling from wagon
at 20 and 25 cents per bushel; corn, 30 cents, and turkeys 25 cents.

Dr. W. B. White will be in Irvington next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. He will be found at the Methodist Church.

Miss Maud S. Spitzer and Miss Avery, of Cannelton, spent Sunday in this city the guests of Mr. C. N. Cote and wife.

Mr. H. G. Kernodle, conductor on the morning passenger train is on for a two week visit with his family in Illinois.

Mrs. R. L. Moreman and daughter, Rosa and Lonnie Fowler went to Brandenburg
last Wednesday and returned Friday.

Rev. Geo. D. Wolf, of Cannelton, Ind., preached a splendid sermon in the Elm street Methodist church last Sunday night.

The ladies of the Baptist church, this city will have a dinner and supper on Thanksgiving for the benefit of the church.

It is rumored that Alf Hansen residing on the Ohio River last week at informal machine. Ed. Kisan wants to know what about it.

The Louisville apple market is a little dull but H. W. Herndon & Co. sold a lot of Rome Beauties Monday at $2.00. They always obtain top prices for their apples.

The new Baptist church at Hartford will be dedicated on the third Sunday in this month. Dr. W. Pope Peaman, of Columbia, Mo., will conduct the services.

Mr. Alonso Fallon and family have moved from the Ohio River to the hill Homes at Princeton, Ky., and is foreman of the water supply for the L. S.
I. & T.

Judge Alexander, of Brandenburg, who has been spending a few days in the city,
the guest of Mr. Paul G. Rough today.
He returned yesterday morning. Henderson
Journal, Oct. 30.

Clayton Reed, chairman of the Republican Committee of this county, has called a meeting of the board for the third Monday in this month, for the purpose of organizing the party.

There is a large lot of fine lumber being shipped to Tell City from this city that could be worked up here to good advantage. What is the matter with our planing mill that they don't take hold of it.

A large excursion of Louisville Business men passed down over the Clover Line
last night to go out to Fordville over the Owensboro and Falls of Rough today.
They will be joined at Owensboro by a large delegation from that city.

On last Saturday afternoon two young ladies and their half chaperon, of Holt, while returning home on horseback from town had quite an exciting encounter with a drunken man. When they came up with him and attempted to pass he decided that they were not to be so easily passed, and he endeavored to seize the horses. The ladies produced a twelve inch butter knife, with a man's flourish of which he insisted on maintaining his claim to the entire road. Then organizing a large party of plain people on one side
and until their homes were almost reached,
and the knife had grown in size to fully twenty-four inches, did they finally by a mad rush for liberty succeed in extricating themselves from their perilous situation.

latter part of last week.

Services at the Baptist church next Sunday morning will be at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Ben F. Richardson, of Cloverport, spent last week in our city.

Precor K. Main came home Saturday night to stay a while with his folks.

Dr. Rogers, of Louisville, was down to see Mr. J. W. Richardson last week.

Little Lawson Moreman got his collar bone broken last week by falling off a horse.

The farmers in the bottom are busy hacking out their corn before cold weather sets in.

Mr. George Sanders, of Bullitt county, visited his sister, Mrs. Alonso Moreman,
last week.

Miss Lillian Lewis has returned home after a pleasant visit of several weeks at Richmond, Ky.

down a well for the Meade County Gas
Co. at Paynesville.

Mr. John Hall returned to Kansas City, last week, accompanied by Elvia Wimp to try the turf of the West.

The Ohio River Gas Company struck a fine flow of gas in a well just down last week four miles below here.

Mrs. Lou Moreman, Mrs. J. A. McGehee and Mr. J. W. Richardson, who have been better at the county fairs are thought to be some better at this writing.

There is some talk of piping the gas in the Brandenburg gas wells around the streets. Why not pipe the water from the tap-and-spring right along with it?

The hunters of Louisville have been informing our county with their pop guns and cannons for the past week or so. From what I learn of them they don't carry much game back with them, except what they buy or hire some of the natives to kill for them. Let every farmer post his land and keep those pests from scaring
the poor birds.

The apple crop is about all shipped out.
It is roughly estimated that the crop in this county this year sold for $150,000.
At Owensboro for two months.

Rheumatism.

BEING due to the presence of uric acid in the blood, and is cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Be sure you get Ayer's and no other, and take it till the poisonous matter is thoroughly expelled from the system. We challenge attention to this testimony:

"About two years ago, after suffering for nearly two years from rheumatism, got, being able to walk, and being disabled, and having tried various remedies, including mineral waters, without relief, I saw by an advertisement in a Chicago paper that a man had been relieved of this distressing complaint after long suffering by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I then decided to make a trial of this medicine, and took it regularly for eight months, and am pleased to state that I am now in complete cure. I have since had no return of the disease. My wife, Mrs. L. M. Dodge, 100 West 12th St., New York."

"One year ago I was taken ill with inflammatory rheumatism, and confined to my house six months. I cannot recall the sickness, but I remember, with no appetite, and my system entirely broken down. I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla and began to improve at once, gaining in strength and most recovering my usual health. I cannot say too much in praise of this valuable medicine. My wife, Mrs. L. M. Dodge, 100 West 12th St., New York."

"HARRY, ARE YOU ALL RIGHT?"

A few evenings since, soon after dark had settled down upon all, the writer was on a train that was leaving one of our Western cities. The passengers had settled themselves as best they could, most of whom expected to travel until the next night. A lady sat just in front of me; she was well dressed, intelligent looking and was alone. She kept the window open and persisted in looking out as we passed by the suburbs of the city. All at once she exclaimed, "All right, Harry!" when, in a moment, a fine looking young man of about twenty years of age came in hurriedly, enquired the lady, kissed her affectionately, and although the train was moving rapidly, retired and jumped off. Again she looked to see that he was safe. She said, "Are you all right, Harry?" and answered came back, "All right." "Good-bye," she said, and closed the window. She soon settled down to repose with a calm, satisfied face. Who was this woman and who was the man who kissed her? We know not, neither do we know their names. They were more than friends. He was Harry to her; she was "Harry" to him. It is "Harry" to the outside world who these names they possess. What they sweethearts, brother and sister, or were they husband and wife? We don't know, we simply know that they loved each other, that they were affectionate one toward the other, that their parting was full of pleasure, though perhaps tinged with sadness. Was the separation to be long or short? We do not know. Perhaps only for a day or two, perhaps a week, a month, a year, perhaps forever. Death may intervene before they ever meet again—they may soon be again together, or they may never meet again. He even kissed his life on that night that he might get one fond embrace, one more kiss from loving lips. Their parting was a pleasant one and should stand separate from those cruel partings that separate this world from the next. We know that the last word and the last act of their lives toward each other were ones of kindness. Husband, you know not when you leave home in the morning to go to work, when you go away on business that you will ever return to find your loved ones alive. Wife, you know not when loved ones leave home that they will ever return. Parents and children, you know not when you separate at the gate that you will ever meet again in this world. Let your last words be those of kindness; your last act be such that will remain as a solace to you all the days of your life. It is these little civilities that go to make this world happy and better. We would be glad if the whole world could so live that their partings would be such as Harry and his wife's. We could all hear the response, "Yes, all right!"—Madisonville Herald.

The mother of a four-month-old baby was scratched on the arm by a rooster's beak. The wound seemed slight, but in a day or two the child was taken ill and died with symptoms of blood poisoning. About the same time the mother began to swell and is now in a dangerous condition. It is supposed that the child, through nursing, had become inoculated with the poison.

Hollow bricks are coming into more general use, and a number of large buildings have been built with them. They crash at 3,000 pounds, and are made of a mixture of 12 inches, with walls 1 inch thick. It is an ordinary form, and makes walls proof against fire, moisture and frost. They require a peculiar clay in their manufacture—one that will not shrink when burned.

Using Fertilizer.

The importance of this subject was brought to mind in a way long to be remembered, by the statement of Prof. Russell, that the probable purchases of fertilizers by Kentucky farmers amounts to $200,000 a year, and that probably one-fourth of the amount is wasted. He explained that by wasted he meant that the farmer, as a mass, do not know what they need, and do not care what they get. One may need nitrate and he gets phosphoric; another may need phosphate and he gets manure; and still another may need a single inexpensive ingredient to add to his soil, and he gets a mixture of all. A farmer who uses fertilizer at considerable cost. No matter what the mistake made, if the farmer be a close observer, he will be disappointed and consume commercial fertilizers as a whole. Experiments made at the Station this season demonstrate that better results were where the needed element only was applied than where a complete fertilizer was used at ten times the cost, was said. It will be seen then how easily a farmer may err. Commercial fertilizers contain such and such elements that will contain all that is needed to make any poor land yield fair crops. Now, if it is in this condition, the owner can't make much of a mistake, no matter what he applies. But a field may be so much more than it falls to produce paying crops, and yet be in certain elements.

It takes just a few more elements to make the soil rich, but they must all be contained in it. If all but one are there, although some may be in great abundance, crops will fail. If the needed one is supplied well, it will be well.

But the difficulty farmers labor under is to know which is the needed element. All cannot expect to have their soils analyzed by the State, and the next best that can be expected is the results of the Experiment Stations. These, to be effective, should be located in the different geological formations of the State. Next, great good may come from the dissemination of lectures at the Farmers' Institutes, which, if contemplated, will be held in every district in the State. But after all, a farmer must make his own experiments, based on the best information he can gain. Let him ascertain as nearly as possible what his soil needs, apply this, leaving space where nothing is added. He may try in a small way many of the different fertilizing elements, and use extensively only such as proves beneficial.

Another way a farmer may err in choice of commercial fertilizers. He may choose that the greater part of soil will be used to his drill the same for the whole field. This will be applied to the fertile fence row the same he does to the worn and yellow fields. It may not be needed at all on one end and be too small on the other. It will actually benefit the other, while the average portion of the land will be materially helped.

In this day of use of fertilizers has become a necessity. Farmers cannot raise poor crops and sell at present prices. The land is the same on a poor or a good crop.

Clover is, in most instances, a sovereign remedy for poor land. It does not cost much unless the land is given some good mineral stimulus.

We trust the work of our Experiment Stations, the teachings of the Institute, and the farmers' own good sense will go to them so that the three-fourths of $700,000 now wasted, may be distributed among them. They need it, God knows, and need it badly.

I have suffered with rheumatism for quite a number of years, and after trying Salvation Oil pronounce it the best remedy I have ever used.

Why Job Printing Is Necessary.

There is nothing which adds more dignity to a firm or business than neatly printed bill heads, letter heads, envelopes, etc. On the very face of them confidence is given to the business. A recommendation printed letter head is a recommendation and introduction of the firm's business with the firm to whom writing. An order for goods written on a blank sheet of paper does not stand without a rival. As fast as an order written on a printed sheet. From the fact that the sheet is printed, the firm receiving it thinks at once that that man has paid attention to his business on the right kind of principles. Printer's ink will set anywhere and at any time. No firm can succeed without it. Printed paper goes a long way—Ex

HERE IS A GOOD GOOSE STORY

From Despatch, Chicago, Illinois, Mills, Despatch, and a Second Despatch.

Mr. John Walker, who lives on the Green River, Ill. road, brought a very good female goose home with him last week. The goose was a very good one, and was very much improved by the feeding of itself well, but when it was fed with a full grown goose, the result was a very good one. It is a well known fact that a goose has a very good appetite, and will eat almost anything. The goose was a very good one, and was very much improved by the feeding of itself well, but when it was fed with a full grown goose, the result was a very good one.

A sympathetic neighbor told Mr. Walker that he had a very good goose.
